THIRD FORM Year 7	1. Meet an author - To encourage our pupil's love of reading we are delighted to welcome Amanda Brown back to Sidcot School. Amanda is a former member of staff, she relocated to America for three years with her family and this gave her the opportunity to write her first novel. She will be talking to the children about the inspiration for her work, and her journey to becoming an author, and she will also pass on her creative writing tips. Pupils will also have the chance to ask questions. Meeting an author can be very exciting and we hope the children enjoy this opportunity. Copies of Amanda's book 'The Secrets of Oskara: The First Test' will be available to buy on the day for a reduced price of £7.99. The talk will take place during your child's English lesson, and is free of charge. The children will receive their books on the day and the cost will be added to the end-of-term bill. However, there is no obligation to buy and copies will be available to borrow from the library after the event. If you have any questions about this event, please contact the library using email address above.	1. If you prefer that your child does not purchase a book on this occasion, please email librarian@sidcot.org.uk by Monday 6th June.

The talk will take place during your child's English lesson, and is free of charge.

The children will receive their books on the day and the cost will be added to the end-of-term bill. However, there is no obligation to buy and copies will be available to borrow from the library after the event.

If you have any questions about this event, please contact the library using email address above.

2. (Year 9) Maths Inspiration Show - Opportunity for Year 9 students! We have been able to secure a limited number of tickets for a Maths Inspiration show in Exeter on the 29th June. The cost will definitely be under £10 per student, we may even be able to make it free. We are also liaising with Exeter University about a visit to part of their campus, hopefully with their Maths Department, and will confirm once this is finalised. Please contact Andy Cox (andy.cox@sidcot.org.uk) for further details.

1. If you prefer that your child does not purchase a book on this occasion, please email librarian@sidcot.org.uk by Monday 6th June.
